

OBSESSIVE, IN THE VERY BEST WAY.

When we set out to design a new five-passenger crossover, we put our best thinking into its fuel efficiency, safety and value. The result is the all new 2010 Chevy Equinox. Compare it to any competitor, and you'll see just how smart it is. Offering an EPA estimated 32 MPG and up to 600 miles between fill-ups, Equinox is the most fuel-efficient crossover on the highway. That's better than Toyota RAV4, Honda CR-V, and even Ford Escape Hybrid¹. Equinox combines the practical features you need and the premium features you've always wanted — all for much less than you'd expect.

Equinox LTZ in Silver Ice Metallic.
