

2009 Passat CC

Coupe. What a word. Nothing stirs up the automotive emotions quite like it. And then there's "sedan." Practical. Convenient. You know, easy. But what if you didn't have to choose? What if there was a sedan that performed like a coupe? And what if it had standard sport suspension? And a German-engineered 200 hp, 2.0 TSI engine as standard, with a 280 hp, 3.6 L option? Not to mention a 6-speed manual or automatic transmission with Tiptronic®, ergonomic interior and next-generation instrument panel in the cockpit. What a choice. The Passat CC. The appeal of a coupe. The convenience of a sedan.
