Getz

Getz is full of surprises but never short on fun striking Looks can be deceiving, but don't be fooled by the Getz. It really does make a great impression on all who see it, not to mention those who drive it.

The Hyundai design team enjoy what they do, and with the Getz they have invested time and effort into creating a car that looks as good as it drives. With its sleek and fun good looks, the Getz cuts through traffic as easily as it cuts through the perception of just what a small car can be. It's the attention to detail that sets the Getz apart and you can see this from whatever angle you care to view it. It's a car with style and substance for drivers who demand both.
