CO₂ data and information

CO₂ emissions-based Vehicle Excise Duty

Vehicle Excise Duty (Road Fund Licence) is based upon the type of fuel a vehicle uses and the amount of carbon dioxide (CO₂) it emits, measured in grams per kilometre (g/km). The DVLA has created six categories for petrol engines and six categories for diesel engines.

CO₂ emission figures

The CO₂ emission figures quoted in the technical data section on pages 8-9 are based on a fully laden vehicle, including the driver, and the heaviest possible options configuration. Actual CO₂ emissions may be lower depending on options selected.

	Petrol engines	Diesel engines
A – up to 100g/km	£65.00	£75.00
B – 101 to 120g/km	£75.00	£85.00
C – 121 to 150g/km	£105.00	£115.00
D – 151 to 165g/km	£125.00	£135.00
E – 166 to 185g/km	£150.00	£160.00
F – over 185g/km	£165.00	£170.00

Servicing

Servicing tailored to your needs

Prior to the 2000 model year, almost all Audi models followed a traditional fixed Service Schedule similar to that of other major car manufacturers: a Lubrication Service every 10,000 miles and an Inspection Service every 12 months or 20,000 miles – whichever occurred sooner. Since then, Audi has introduced a more flexible maintenance system that works in accordance with how, where and how much an individual uses their car.

The two Servicing Regimes available are the conventional 'Inspection Service Regime' and the flexible 'LongLife Service Regime'. When you purchase a new car, we will recommend one of these regimes to you depending on your own individual driving style and journey-type. The tables below should give you an indication of which regime might be more appropriate for you.

With the LongLife Service Regime, on-board sensors continuously monitor the condition of the engine oil in terms of temperature, level and oil degradation. The monitoring system also checks mileage, brake-pad wear and battery condition. Using this information, the car's on-board computer calculates its own maintenance interval, providing you with ample warning of a due Service via the 'distance to Service' display.

Inspection Service Regime

	Vehicle usage:
Mileage	Less than 10,000* miles per annum.
Type of Journey	Mainly city/town centre driving. Short journeys.
Conditions	Frequent cold starts. High engine loading – e.g. frequent hill climbs, vehicle fully loaded, towing.
Driving style	Uneconomical – e.g. heavy acceleration, heavy braking, constant changes in speed, constant use of high revs, 'sporty' driving.
	Service intervals:
Oil-change Service	Every 10,000* miles / 1 year
Interval Service	Every 20,000* miles / 2 years
Interval Service Inspection	Every 40,000* miles / 4 years

*Mileages are approximate as the Service Indicator system uses kilometres as its distance measurement.

In practice, this means that every Audi gets the maintenance it needs, when it needs it. For companies and private owners alike, there are many advantages to the LongLife Service Regime. Longer service intervals mean lower maintenance costs, and thus lower whole-life costs. According to company car mileage monitored at Audi since the introduction of LongLife, petrol engines are typically achieving an average of at least 17,500 miles and diesel engines around 20,000 miles between services.

One of the factors that makes this kind of servicing regime possible is the advanced engineering and technology that goes into Audi engines. Furthermore, Audi use high-grade long-life oils such as Castrol SLX LongLife III, which are designed to withstand ageing and high loads without deterioration. Compared to conventional oils, these advanced-formulation oils also give exceptional levels of engine protection, are kinder to the environment and deliver average fuel savings of 2.7%.

LongLife Service Regime

	Vehicle usage:
Mileage	More than 30 miles per day.
Type of Journey	Motorway and main road driving. Mainly longer distance journeys. Constant speeds.
Conditions	Normal engine loading – e.g. with little or no towing, with little or no hill climbs. Normal vehicle loading.
Driving style	Moderate acceleration, moderate braking, engine revs mainly below 3000.
	Service intervals:
Interval Service	Flexible to a maximum 20,000* miles / 2 years
Interval Service Inspection	Every 40,000* miles / 4 years
