Agila
Oddly attractive

Oddly, until the Barrington-Smythes noticed the new Agila, 'less is more' just wasn't their style.

With this Mini People Carrier (MPC), you pay less than you might expect. And you get more. A simple, yet rather attractive idea – if you like that kind of thing.

Agila Enjoy illustrated features Exterior Styling pack.

Even the tightest parking spaces are easy to get into when you're driving Agila. Although it feels incredibly spacious inside, its compact shape minimises its exterior dimensions and its overall length is only 3.5 metres. Electric power steering and large, electrically adjustable door mirrors are standard – and a high seating position provides a great view. Add short front and rear overhangs and it's clear why Agila squeezes into small parking spaces with ease.

Many people these days leave ridiculously small spaces in which others just can't park. Finding such an opportunity impossible to resist, ever-ready Agila swings into action, leaving its less compact contemporaries in the shade.

It's all in the name, yet some people haven't made the connection between Agila and its outstanding agility.

This nippy little number is an absolute joy around town. It's so easy to manoeuvre, simply effortless to drive – and it just adores tight bends and small spaces.

6

Thanks to its finely tuned chassis and choice of two lively engines with class-leading torque, Agila responds eagerly to your command. It gives you responsive handling, a comfortable ride and standard anti-lock brakes on Enjoy and Design models give you even more control. Agila is highly economical and it's packed with safety and security features that give you all the confidence and reassurance you'll need, while making it extremely affordable to insure.

Oddly Simon invited four friends along – he never does that!

Fortunately, spacious Agila's attractive flexible seating coped impeccably.

It's small on the outside but Agila is highly practical with room inside for up to five adults – or a flexible combination of passengers and luggage, thanks to its innovative seating system. Headroom and legroom are surprisingly generous – and the rear seats are higher than those in the front, so your passengers can enjoy an even better view.

Agila Design

Agila Expression with optional CAR 2003 stereo radio/cassette player with remote display, passenger's airbag and Comfort pack.

Agila Enjoy with optional air-conditioning.

Oddly Simon's friends disappeared when the time came to load his sideboard. Their important plans couldn't be rearranged.

Luckily, Agila's more flexible, so Simon quickly changed the seating combination and loading the sideboard was easy. Agila is attractive and highly functional (unlike Simon's friends).

Agila's innovative seating system allows you to fold the rear seats almost completely flat in one simple operation. As you lower the rear seat back the seat base automatically slides forwards and downwards, expanding the luggage compartment. The rear seat splits 60/40, further increasing flexibility. And the luggage compartment's low threshold – plus the high opening tailgate – make it easy to load bulky objects into the car.

Net pocket illustrated is part of optional Interior pack.

Performance, fuel economy and emissions

Model	Performance (manufacturer's figures)				Fuel economy mpg (litres/100km)			CO ₂ emissions (g/km)
	Max. speed (mph)	0-60mph	Acceleration (secs) 30-50mph (4th gear)	mph/1000rpm (5th gear)	Urban driving	Extra-urban driving	Combined figure
1.0i 12v Expression	90	16.7	12.8	17.6	40.4 (7.0)	55.4 (5.1)	48.7 (5.8)	139
1.2i 16v Enjoy/Design	96	12.5	10.0	18.8	36.2 (7.8)	51.4 (5.5)	44.8 (6.3)	151

The fuel consumption figures shown comply with EC directive 1999/100 to provide a realistic indication of fuel consumption by taking into account everyday driving conditions, such as cold starts, acceleration and braking. These figures take account of the vehicles kerbweight, ascertained in accordance with the above regulation. Important: the results given relate to the particular car tested. Driving style, road and traffic conditions, vehicle mileage and standard of maintenance may also affect fuel consumption; therefore the results do not express or imply any guarantee of fuel consumption attainable.

Weights and towing data

Model	Kerbweight (kg)	Gross vehicle weight (kg)	Maximum towing weights (kg)
			Trailer with brakes	Trailer without brakes
1.0i 12v Expression	970	1435	800	350
1.2i 16v Enjoy	1001	1450	800	350
1.2i 16v Design	1013	1450	800	350

Gross vehicle weight is the total permissible weight of the vehicle including passengers and their luggage. To determine total carrying capacity, deduct kerbweight from gross vehicle weight. The maximum roof rack loading should not exceed a total of 35kg. The maximum towing weight is based on the ability of the car - with two occupants of 70kg each - to restart on a 12% gradient, which is approximately 1 in 8.3, at sea level. At altitudes above 1500 metres, the engine output may drop with a corresponding reduction in towing capability. Any extra weight, such as luggage or additional passengers, should be deducted from the maximum towing weight. With a trailer fully loaded, maximum noseweight should not exceed 35kg. Always fit Vauxhall roof carrier systems and towing accessories available from your Vauxhall retailer. They are designed specifically for Vauxhall models and carry a 12-month guarantee.

Celebrate colour

Agila style is exemplified by this range of vibrant exterior colours.

Solid colours achieve their shine through a gloss contained within the paint resin, whilst two-coat metallic and pearlescent colours rely upon thousands of tiny particles suspended within the basecoat to produce their distinctive finishes. Aluminium particles create the effect of constantly changing shades in metallic colours, whereas mica particles in pearlescent colours produce a shimmering iridescence and create the illusion of constantly changing colour. Two-coat colours are protected and enhanced by a coat of clear lacquer.

The application of the latest in paint plant technology helps maintain the 'new car' look for longer as well as enhancing overall durability. Two-coat metallic and pearlescent paints are available at extra cost on Enjoy and Design models.
