BMW EfficientDynamics delivers impressive emissions reductions and better fuel consumption without sacrificing driving pleasure. This is achieved through a combination of intelligent engine management systems, innovative new technologies and the use of lightweight materials.

Active Aerodynamics.

Actively controlled air flaps regulate air flow to the engine and braking systems. By opening and closing these flaps, the engine is able to reach its operating temperature quicker, whilst vehicle drag is also reduced – helping the car move through the air more easily and reducing fuel consumption and emissions.

Electric Power Steering.

By using an electric motor to assist the steering, not only is the system lighter in weight than conventional hydraulic power steering, thereby reducing fuel consumption and emissions – but assistance can also be varied to aid the driver at lower speeds.

Brake Energy Regeneration.

Intelligent Alternator Control monitors battery condition, engaging the alternator only when the battery requires recharging. This reduces the demands on the engine, reducing fuel consumption and emissions. In addition, when the car's brakes are applied or when coasting downhill, this system automatically engages the alternator to charge the battery, recycling energy that would otherwise be wasted.

Lightweight Engineering.

The overall weight of the vehicle is reduced through the use of lightweight materials such as thermoplastic, aluminium and magnesium alloy. The results are enhanced driving dynamics and improvements in both fuel economy and weight distribution.

Optimum Shift Indicator.

A small visual display on the car's instrument cluster shows the optimum gear for any driving situation. This gives drivers the opportunity to adopt a more fuel-efficient driving style.

Once activated, the unit emits a silent signal which allows computers fitted in Police cars and helicopters to track your vehicle - and anyone driving it - down to their exact location.
