MG6 GT

British style for the British lifestyle, and more space to boot

British engineering and sleek British styling means the MG6 GT packs in more of the things a British lifestyle demands – heated leather sports seats[^] to warm you up and dry you out after the rain, front and rear electric windows, air conditioning for those rare sunny days, not to mention a huge 498 litre boot space (expanding to 1,372 litres with the rear seats down) to swallow all your clobber - so huge in fact, it makes others in this price range feel a little inferior.

The biggest in its class - what could you do with it?

It's the old cliché – size matters. But when you're adventuring in the great British outdoors, walking the dog or going hunting (in a supermarket for the weekly shop), being sporty and spacious makes a big difference! The MG6 GT may only be a little larger than other medium fastbacks, but it has a boot that gives you 50% more space and a roomy back seat that's perfectly made for three 6ft adults, or two babyseats and a passenger without the usual squeeze!

'Standard' redefined

'Safety fast' is one of our original guarantees. Today exceptional safety comes as standard on every MG6 GT with hill hold control for perfect hill starts, stability control to reduce loss of traction, ABS with EBD to maximise your stopping power and emergency brake assist. Plus with driver, front passenger, side, and curtain airbags all fitted as standard too, the MG6 GT more than deserves its impressive 4* EURO NCAP safety rating.

If it's 'mod cons' you're after, introduce yourself to the MG6 GT S and you'll be rewarded with 17" twist-design alloys, air con, front and rear electric windows and traction control. Cruise control and built-in sat nav are the standard on the SE, whilst the TSE maximises comfort and style with dual zone climate control, 18" sports alloys, heated leather front seats that are adjusted at the flick of a switch, Bluetooth phone connection and clever reversing camera. Well, 'MG' does mean 'more goodies'!

More sports support
We've put our passion for developing all-things sport into supporting many sports initiatives, including local projects in Birmingham, MG's Maxifuel Pro Cycling Team, and women's football star, Sue Smith. Of course, we can't forget our racing roots and today this is reflected in our MG KX Momentum racing team. Our newest driver Sam Tordoff, an up and coming star, is also the winner of recent initiative, the KX Academy – giving drivers like Sam the support and advice needed to progress.

More sporting prowess
We've been pushing British innovation to the limit on the track to give you unrivalled performance on the road for over 90 years. Today you can think of the racing MGs at the British Touring Car Championship (BTCC) as prototypes for your MG6.

More features as standard

We do A to B differently

Choose the newly engineered diesel or the responsive petrol engine and A to B will no longer be just A to B in your MG.

Drawing on decades of sporting heritage, our visionary engineers at Longbridge have given the MG6 a choice of two surprisingly rugged turbocharged engines.

TCI-TECH

If you do under 12,000 miles a year, the petrol engine is the best choice for you. Put your foot down in the 160ps four cylinder petrol and you'll get 0 to 62mph in a cool 8.4seconds. So even if winding open roads and mountainous rambles aren't part of your daily drive, you'll enjoy MG certainty at busy junctions and an impressive 37.7mpg in traffic, and of course second glances as standard.

DTi-TECH

If rugged power and torque is more your style, the stunning all new MG DTi-TECH Diesel engine has been designed and engineered in the UK for you! Complete with six-speed gearbox which produces 150PS with 350Nm of torque, you won't find more pulling power per pound anywhere in the market! Suitable for weekends away, towing your caravan or just the daily commute, the diesel engine is a must if you're a high mileage driver and still want impressively low running costs.
