smart

has redefined urban mobility with innovative assistance systems for more safety and comfort combined with an unmistakable design and a high degree of individuality. A sports car for the city. The joint venture between smart and BRABUS makes daily driving in the city anything but an everyday experience. With 109 hp (80 kW), the BRABUS has an impressive power-to-weight ratio. These vehicles demonstrate in more accomplished style than any other contenders that sporty credentials in the city stem not from big cars but from the courage to act on big ideas.
