Ford Falcon. Celebrating 50 years of firsts.

XR6 Turbo Ute 50th Anniversary shown in Nitro

It's been more than 50 years since Ford developed the very first ute in Australia. Ford then went on to create the Falcon Ute, which has gone on to set the standard in workhorse capability and sports performance. Along the way, Falcon Ute has racked up an impressive list of firsts for an Australian-built ute. It was first with ABS, first to offer a cab-chassis and super-cab body style, first with a dedicated LPG engine, first with integrated iPod[®] and Bluetooth[®] technologies as standard.[#] With Ford's commitment to investing in the future, the tradition of firsts will continue. To celebrate Falcon's 50th Anniversary, Ford is proud to release a limited edition range of Falcon Utes packed full of additional signature features at exceptional value.

Celebrate with a 50th Anniversary Falcon XR6 Ute or XR6 Turbo Ute.

If you're after a true Aussie vehicle that packs in power and performance, as well as loads of style, the 50th Anniversary Falcon XR6 Ute can't be overtaken. Its brute strength can handle any job that comes your way. On top of this, the 50th Anniversary Falcon XR6 Ute boasts outstanding added value including 50th Anniversary side graphics and stripes, limited edition 18" alloy wheels and dual zone climate control. The XR6 Turbo Ute helps you tackle the hard yards in style and comfort with even more extras like leather detailed seat trim with 50th Anniversary logo embroidery and tough 19" alloy wheels.

Driver, passenger and side head/thorax airbags.

50th Anniversary scuff plates and carpet mats.
