Canyon SLE Crew Cab shown with High Stance Off-Road Suspension in Silver Birch Metallic.

2004 GMC CANYON

The all-new GMC® Canyon™ is a midsize pickup that's big on flexibility. Crew Cab® models feature a 60/40 split-bench flat-folding rear seat for greater utility. And both suspension systems offer a smooth ride and make Canyon less sensitive to vehicle loads. With 175 hp from the standard Vortec™ 2800 I-4 engine (available early 2004), Canyon offers best-in-class four-cylinder horsepower.* Or choose the available Vortec 3500 I-5 engine that has more horsepower than any competitor's V6 and offers the fuel efficiency of a four-cylinder (Based on GM estimated MPG: 3.5L I-5 with automatic transmission and 4WD, 16 city/20 highway. EPA figures not available.) Coming late fall 2003: Canyon is engineered to move you.

*Based on 2004 GM Midsize Pickup segment and latest available information.
