INTRO

Racing is Life

Maserati GT2 Stradale: the road-legal version of the GT2 racer.
A supercar ready to revolutionize performance on the track and on the road.

PERFORMANCE

Racing is Performance

The garage door opens, and you start the engine. It's go time.
The light turns green - go chase down that racing line. Faster.
Nothing can stop you, because racing is your way of life.

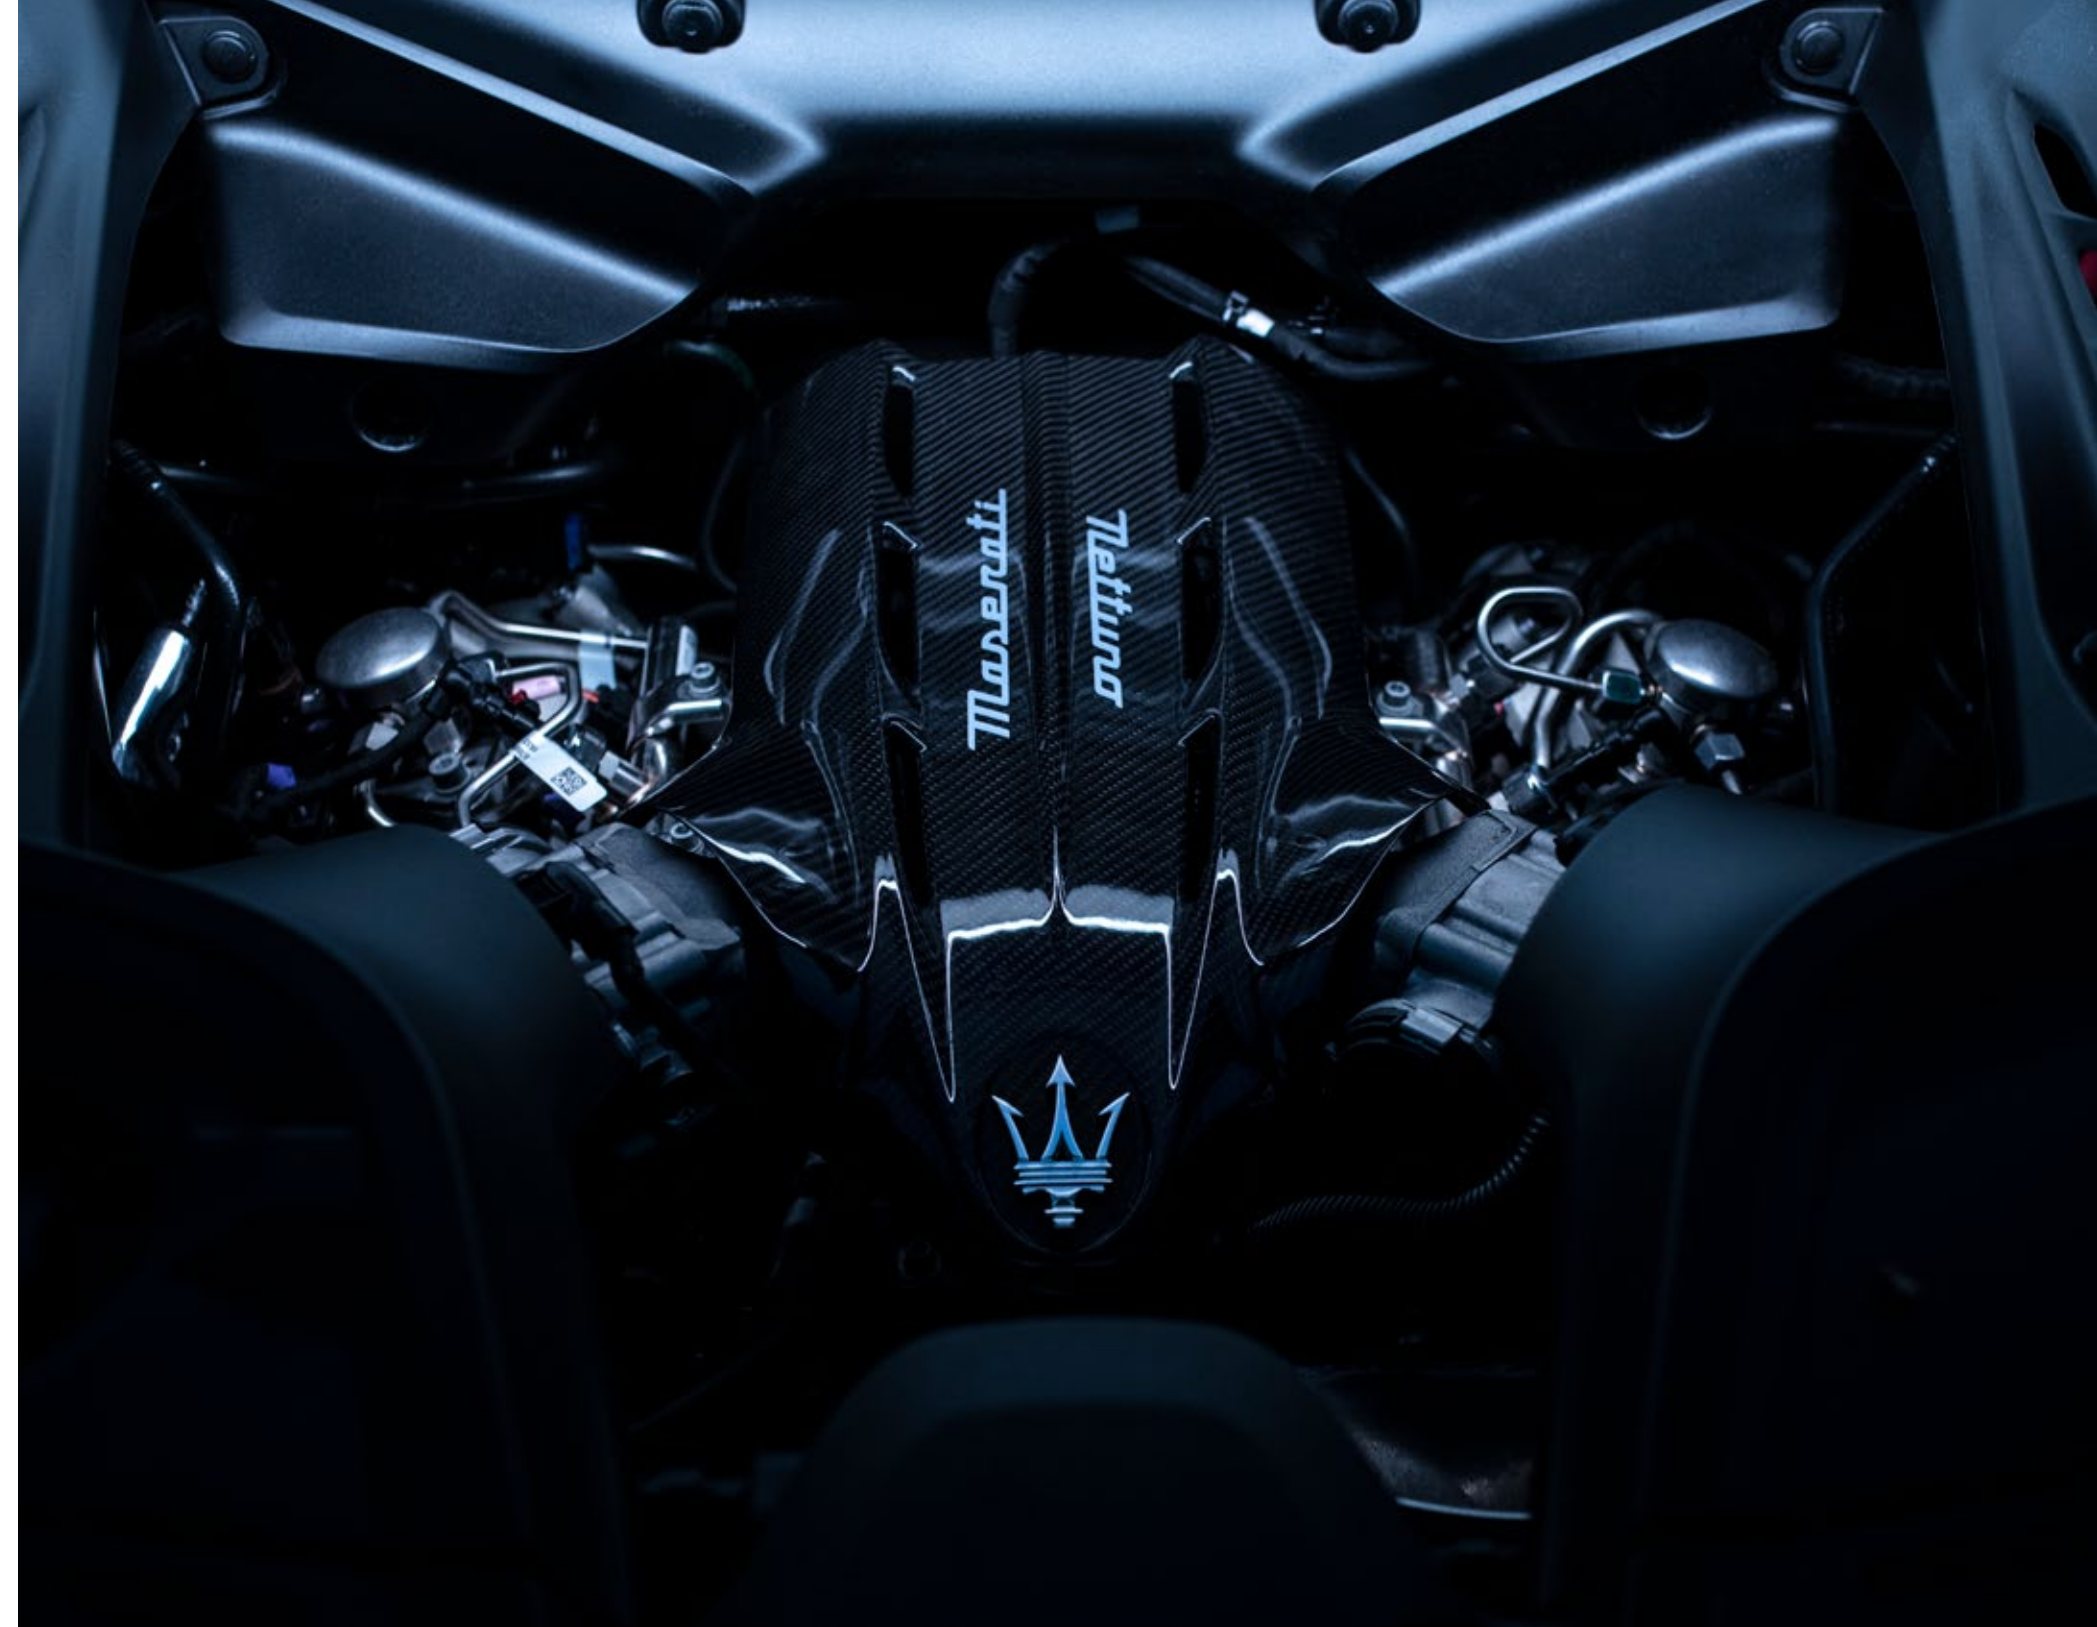

GT2 Stradale

Max power	Max speed	Acceleration	Engine layout	Traction	Max torque
640 cv	324 km/h	2.8 sec	V6	RWD	720 Nm

Straight adrenaline in numbers

With a blistering 640 CV, the optimized twin-turbo V6 engine features F1-inspired pre-chamber combustion to pack a staggering punch. The GT2 Stradale doesn't just race - it dominates, making it one of the fastest 0-100 RWD on the road.

500 kg of downforce

Its chiseled body was engineered to dramatically increment the downforce with air whipping right past it. Racing elements, like the aero hood with air intake flaps in matte carbon, scream speed, improving air circulation and heat dissipation while raw racing elements like the exposed carbon-fiber monocoque in the cockpit declare its champion pedigree.

A champion's wing

Jet speed on land. The multi-position rear wing augments the GT2 Stradale's downforce up to an unmatched 370kg on the rear, pushing down air to stay glued to the track. Chase beyond all limits.

Racing euphoria

Precision and agility are engineered into every inch of this beast. From the moment Nettuno awakens, the race begins. Improved cooling and larger lateral conveyors push the boundaries of performance, delivering dynamic control for an unmatched driving experience to command the road.

A racer's life ethos

GT2 Stradale's lightweight carbon-fiber racing seats come in two sizes to suit different sporting personalities. The 4-point seat belt keeps the driver glued to the seat, while the optional harness bar offers additional security.

Take the lead

Embrace the everyday race with the GT2 Stradale's sport carbon-fiber and Alcantara steering wheel. The integrated racing shift lights, a feature typically found on professional race cars, provide real-time gear shift indicators for an authentic track experience. The swift responsiveness of the carbon-fiber paddle shifters and blue racing handles enhance every lap.

DESIGN

Racing is in the Design

An insatiable, instinctual need to compete, to be ahead of the crowd, on the track and in life. For racers, aesthetics and adrenaline are inseparable allies – speed is the ultimate sculptor. Designed for a limited few, GT2 Stradale doesn't just make an appearance, it holds an audience.

Sculpted for the fastest lap

A racer's body for a racing mind. Beneath the chiseled carbon-fiber body kit, louvered fenders and GT2 aero front hood is the ultra-light carbon-fiber monocoque chassis. Because when racing is in your DNA, any moments not spent racing are moments spent waiting to get back on track.

Speaking pure exclusivity

The GT2 Stradale badge on the dash and dedicated logo on the central tunnel are custom statements to echo the individual racing personality of a select few.

Louvered fenders

What zero drag looks like. New louvered fenders on the wheel arches increase the frontal downforce while enhancing cooling. No limits, all racing – it's a way of being.

Get a grip

From the blue door handles to the black Alcantara steering wheel with carbon inserts and racing shift up lights to the anodized drive mode selector or sleek digital screen, the textures in the cabin induce tactile pleasure.

LIFESTYLE

Racing is a Lifestyle

Unyielding performance with a pure-bred Italian soul.

GT2 Stradale is engineered to outpace the pack from the comfort of a grand touring cockpit. Technical innovation meets artisan tradition in the immersive cabin with natural sound and superior convenience, but only for an elite circle of racers.

In total control

Stay in control of life's twists and turns with pinpoint accuracy. And when navigating the unexpected, advanced driving features offer an extra layer of protection for uncompromising performance and safety. Because in life, as in racing, it's all about confidence.

Aerodynamics take on the street

The vehicle height variator (lifter) in GT2 Stradale can be activated with the push of a button to increase ground clearance when traversing obstacles such as speed bumps or over-steep ramps. The front axle of the super sports car is raised by 50 mm at speeds up to 40km/h to ensure smooth handling when taking on city streets.

Pack for the podium

When life's everyday race takes off, be prepared for whatever the road brings. With best-in-class cargo space, the GT2 Stradale has room for all a racer's essentials and more. Ready for the unexpected, ready for the podium.

Corsa Mode

Unleash the full potential of the GT2 Stradale with an exclusive new Corsa mode. Electronic control can be minimized for a raw, exhilarating drive that puts the driver in complete command. With four different levels of control, gradually dial back the electronic aids, leading up to level 1 where the driver is free to let loose and carve their own path on the circuit. Experience the thrill of unfiltered speed and agility.

A close-up photograph of a blue car's body panel. The panel is a vibrant blue with a subtle metallic sheen. A black badge with the text 'GT2 Stradale' in blue is mounted on the panel. To the right of the badge is a circular emblem, possibly a brand logo, which is partially visible. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the contours and textures of the car's surface.
